

by Asta Scheib

June 2007 / 320pp

Fiction

This book is outside of the five-year window for guaranteed assistance with English language translation. We suggest getting in touch with the relevant funding body for an informal conversation about the possibility of support. Please refer to our recommendations page for books that are currently covered by our funding guarantee.

Frost and Sun

Frost und Sonne

review

At the start of this historical novel, set during the reign of the last Tsar, Nicholas II, its principal character, Prince Felix Felixowitsch Jussupow, is a carefree, sensitive eight-year-old, growing up as a member of one of the richest families in Russia. At sixteen, however, he embarks on a secret love-affair with a young cavalryman and, as rumours spread, is sent to be 'cured' by the now all-powerful Rasputin, with disastrous results. In disgust Felix joins in the failed attempt to murder his tormentor, but by now the Russian Revolution is about to start and soon the Jussopows will be fleeing for their lives.

about the author

Asta Scheib was born in 1939 in Bergneustadt, Rhineland, has been editor of various magazines and published her first novel in the 1980s. Her fictionalised biography of the Faber-Castell family was an acclaimed bestseller. She lives in Munich.

rights information

Hoffmann und Campe Verlag

Tel: +49 40 44188281

Email: valerie.schneider@hoca.de

Contact: Valerie Schneider

Hoffmann und Campe Verlag